

Tracheostomy Grab Bag must be on standby at all time, appropriately stocked, restocked and should be checked regularly. It will be needed during tracheostomy change or during emergency situations such as bleeding or tube blockage. The Grab Bag must be stored in a designated zone and made known to all members of the team during post-operative period.

Below are the items that should be in Tracheostomy Grab Bag:

